

Collaboration of Labor History
Organizations presents . . .

A VIRTUAL FORUM

U.S. and Canadian Labor:

*Looking to history to build a stronger future for workers.
Unions in both nations share similarities and differences, and each can learn from the other.*

SAVE THE DATE!!!

THURSDAY, MARCH 18, 2021 | 6:30 P.M. (CST)

REGISTER HERE

Sara Nelson,

*President of Association of Flight Attendants - CWA, AFL-CIO.
Prominent spokesperson for airline workers and positive change*

Alvin Finkel,

*Professor emeritus, history, Athabasca University; author
President, Alberta Labour History Institute; historian*

Moderator: Larry Spivack, president, Illinois Labor History Society

Discussion to follow

FREE

Please pre-register at <http://tinyurl.com/uscanadalabor>

THE COLLABORATION OF LABOR HISTORY ORGANIZATIONS (CLHO) is a network of more than 15 organizations and groups in the United States and Canada that formed in 2019 to network to better preserve and promote the history of workers and their unions. For more information, contact Ken Germanson at kagermanson@wisconsinlaborhistory.org.